Solid Waste Expert Joins Barton & Loguidice

SYRACUSE, NY – November 20, 2017 – Barton & Loguidice (B&L) announces Donald R. Gentilcore, Jr. has joined the Solid Waste Group as a Senior Project Manager at the firm’s Syracuse office. A resident of Camillus, NY, he received his B.S. in Environmental Management from Rochester Institute of Technology. Gentilcore has over 20 years of experience in management, operations, development, construction and permitting in the solid waste industry. Throughout his career, Gentilcore’s responsibilities have included the operational and financial oversight of landfills, transfer stations, and recycling, composting and biosolids management facilities throughout multiple states and Canada.

In his previous position as a Chief Operating Officer, Gentilcore developed solid waste projects in various markets, including single stream recycling and bio solid projects.

Gentilcore has also served as an Area Manager for Progressive Waste Solutions, responsible for a multi-state territory that collectively managed over 10,000 tons per day. Gentilcore also previously served as District Manager for the Seneca Meadows Landfill, which was recognized with multiple awards during his tenure, including the Solid Waste Association of North America (SWANA) Gold Award for Landfill Operations, the Rochester Business Journal Environmental Excellence Award and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Landfill Methane Outreach Project of the Year.

He has managed complex projects across multiple solid waste disciplines, including landfill expansions, landfill gas to energy products, the development of a Renewable Resource Park, wetland mitigation, and leachate automation and forcemain projects. He is a registered New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (NYSDEC) Class A/B Operator of Underground Storage Tanks.

Gentilcore is a member of the New York Federation of Solid Waste Management and SWANA, the Board of Directors and Chair of the Finance Committee for Fingerlakes Health, and Advisory Board Member for the Montezuma Audubon Center. He has been recognized by the Rochester Business Journal as a Forty under 40 recipient and has also received the Montezuma Audubon Donald G. Colvin Conservation Award.
