Beware of Overhead Power Lines

Incident
While servicing a customer the truck makes contact or tears down an electrical power line.

Results
The truck, up to 35' surrounding it, is now charged to the voltage existing in line.

Prevention
Check for overhead lines, maintain a safe distance and report unsafe conditions to your supervisor so that corrective action can be taken.