Safety First!

Incident
Employee riding on rear steps beyond a safe speed and distance.

Results
The helper loses his/her balance and falls. The result of that fall can be as serious as you can imagine, but will be no less than severe cuts & contusions and loss of time.

Prevention
Employees should only be riding on the steps of any vehicle when the speed is less than 10 mph and on a residential street where stops are within close proximity.