Donald McGannon once said that leadership is an action, not a position. Leadership engagement, at all levels of the organization, is key to create a lasting Safety Culture.

Cultivating Safety Culture

Culture comes from the leadership at an organization.

To cultivate a lasting Safety Culture, leaders must believe in the Safety Philosophy of the Organization.

Leaders must hold themselves and others accountable to follow all safety absolutes.

Unofficial leaders in an organization can impact the Safety Culture as well.

Find a Safety Champion in your organization that is a member of the frontline team.

Your Safety Champion should engage everyone in the organization to increase the awareness of safety.

Through Leadership an organization can cultivate a Safety Culture that will last.
